

“The [Roman] Catholic Connection to Latin America”

A 5-page handout by Darryl Eberhart, Editor of ETI & TTT Newsletters

Internet Website: www.toughissues.org // February 15, 2011

All emphasis is mine unless otherwise stated. // Permission is given to copy.

NOTE: If you know anyone who is fluent in both English and Spanish – or in both English and Portuguese, please ask that person to please translate this handout (that deals with LATIN AMERICA) into Spanish – or into Portuguese; and then, if possible, please have someone post that translation on an Internet website.

I. INTRODUCTION: As you read through the next two sections of this handout, i.e., the “Definitions” and “Quotations” sections, you will see the great evil that has resulted from the Roman Catholic “connection” to LATIN AMERICA. This evil includes the enslavement of individuals, peoples, and nations – both literally and figuratively! And this evil almost always has resulted from a convenient marriage of “Church and State”!

II. DEFINITIONS (hopefully in alphabetical order):

“Behind the Purple Curtain” (Per Darryl Eberhart, Editor of ETI & TTT): “(1) ‘Behind the Purple Curtain’ is the title of a book written by Dr. Walter M. Montano (a former Dominican monk) – a book that ‘pulls the mask off the Roman [Catholic] Church and shows the beast beneath’. (2) ‘Behind the purple curtain’ is also an expression. As the expression ‘behind the Iron Curtain’ referred to the masses of people who were enslaved behind the ‘curtain’ or ‘wall’ of Communist exploitation and oppression, so the expression ‘behind the Purple Curtain’ refers to the masses of people who are currently enslaved behind the ‘curtain’ or ‘wall’ of Papal Rome’s exploitation and oppression – the Roman Catholic Church-State’s ‘curtain’ or ‘wall’ that surrounds many nations of the world today, including many of the countries of LATIN AMERICA.”

“Castro, Fidel” (Per Darryl Eberhart, Editor of ETI & TTT): “Fidel Castro was born in 1926. Castro, a Roman Catholic, was trained by the Jesuits. He was, and still is, a puppet of Jesuit-controlled Papal Rome. That is why no SERIOUS attempt was ever really made by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) to assassinate Jesuit-controlled Fidel Castro, despite plenty of propaganda to the contrary. (According to Eric Jon Phelps, author of ‘Vatican Assassins’, at least six heads of the CIA have been Jesuit-controlled Knights of Malta: Allen Dulles, John McCone, William Casey, William Colby, George Tenet, and Leon Panetta.)

Castro’s military forces knew in advance about the 1961 ‘Bay of Pigs’ invasion. Did certain Jesuit-controlled high-level officials at the CIA tip off Jesuit-trained Castro about the scheduled invasion? (According to author Eric Jon Phelps, two Jesuit-controlled Knights of Malta were serving as top-level CIA officials at the time of the ‘Bay of Pigs’ invasion, i.e., then-CIA Director Allen Dulles and CIA Counterintelligence Chief James Jesus Angleton.) Because Castro’s military forces had been tipped off, they were waiting for the Cuban exile invasion force, and crushed it. The betrayal of those Cuban exiles involved in the 1961 invasion of Cuba ensured not only that Jesuit-controlled dictator Fidel Castro would remain in power, but also that Castro’s prestige in the eyes of many Latin American countries would be greatly enhanced! In the process, the failed invasion ‘eliminated’ many of the most patriotic and courageous Cubans who were opposed to Communist dictator Fidel Castro. The CIA placed the blame for the Bay of Pigs fiasco on President Kennedy!”

“Communism” (Per Webster’s New World College Dictionary, Fourth Edition; Wiley Publishing, Inc.; 2006; first two meanings): “1 any economic theory or system based on the ownership of all property by the community as a whole 2 [often C-] a) a hypothetical stage of socialism, as formulated by Marx, Engels, Lenin, and others, to be characterized by a classless and stateless society and the equal distribution of economic goods, and to be achieved by revolutionary and dictatorial, rather than by gradualistic, means b) the form of government of various, esp. former, socialist states which profess to be working toward this stage by means of state planning and control of the economy, a one-party political structure, and an emphasis on the requirements of the state rather than on individual liberties: cf. SOCIALISM...”

“Divine Righters of Europe” (Per Darryl Eberhart, Editor of ETI & TTT): “The ‘Divine Righters of Europe’ is an expression used by author Burke McCarty in her book ‘The Suppressed Truth about the Assassination of Abraham Lincoln’. (I suspect that other writers of her era used the same expression. It was no doubt derived from another expression, ‘the Divine Right of Kings [and Popes]’.)

The Papacy and European monarchs together had ruled Europe for many centuries with an iron fist, based upon the idea that all authority to rule comes from God through the Papacy! Thus, the ruler of the State could do whatever he wanted – no matter how evil – without any accountability to earthly authority, with the sole exception of his accountability to the pope of Rome, who had the power to crown or dethrone him. The pope, likewise, could do whatever he wanted – no matter how evil – with no apparent accountability to any earthly authority. (Note: For the past 4½+ centuries – with the exception of several decades – the ‘Black Pope’ – the Jesuit Superior General, has, from behind the scenes, ruled the ‘White Pope’.) Burke McCarty also refers to these ‘Divine Righters of Europe’ as the ‘enemies of freedom’. The ‘Divine Righters of Europe’ (in the 19th century) hated religious liberty, freedom of conscience, freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of assembly, ‘popular, representative government’, and ‘separation of church and State’. In other words, the ‘Divine Righters of Europe’ (in the 19th century) – and the Papacy – considered the liberties and freedoms cherished by Americans, along with the American form of ‘popular, representative government’ with its ‘separation of church and State’, to be a ‘most pestilential error’ and a ‘virus’ that, if left unchecked, would ‘spread’ to Europe. (The ‘Divine Righters’ of Europe also did not want the ideas of popular, representative government – or freedoms of religion, speech, conscience, etc. – to spread like a ‘virus’ to the countries of LATIN AMERICA, many of which they hoped to continue to control and exploit!)

‘Divine Righter’ European monarchs, at the urging of the Papacy, and under the guidance of the Jesuit Order, met twice in the 19th century in order to plan the destruction of the American Constitutional Republic: first at the Congress of Vienna (Austria) in 1814-15; and then at Verona, Italy in 1822. High-level Jesuits later met at Chieri, Italy in 1825 to ‘fine-tune’ those plans for the destruction of the American Constitutional Republic – and the destruction of popular, representative government wherever it might appear!

The Jesuit-fomenting of the bloody American Civil War of 1861-65 (with the intent to split the American Constitution Republic into two separate nations) was one of the ‘fruits’ of the Divine Righters’ plans for destroying America; however, President Abraham Lincoln, with help from Czar Alexander II of Russia, thwarted the Jesuit-Papal plans to divide the Union. For daring to oppose and to bring to naught these Jesuit-Papal plans to split the Union in two, both President Abraham Lincoln and Czar Alexander II would be brutally assassinated by agents of Jesuit-controlled Papal Rome.”

“Fifth Column” (Per Webster’s New World Dictionary, Second College Edition; William Collins + World Publishing Co., Inc.; 1974): “[First used by the Spanish Nationalist General Mola (1936), who, besieging Madrid [Ed.: the capital of Spain] with four columns from the outside, boasted of having a ‘fifth column’ within] 1. Those people in Madrid who aided the forces of [Ed.: Vatican-supported Fascist General] Francisco Franco in his uprising against the Spanish republic (1936-1939). 2. Any group of people who give aid and support to the enemy from within their own country. – Fifth columnist”

“Fifth Columnists, [Roman Catholic]” (Per Avro Manhattan, author of “The Vatican Moscow Washington Alliance”; Pages 265, 266): “To talk about [Ed.: Roman] Catholic fifth columnists sounds discriminatory. Yet, one generation ago, [Ed.: Roman] Catholic minorities helped to destroy democratic Europe [Ed.: i.e., just prior to, and during the early stages of, World War II]. This they did by cooperating with [Ed.: Nazi leader Adolf] Hitler. ...Again, who were gathered inside the ‘Trojan Horses’ to help [Ed.: Nazi leader Adolf] Hitler topple the political and, yes, even the military structures of Belgium and France [Ed.: and also Yugoslavia]? Once more we find individual [Ed.: Roman] Catholic leaders or [Ed.: Roman] Catholic groups intimately connected with the hierarchies and therefore, with the Vatican and Pope Pius XII.

...In France, we meet a Papal knight, Pierre Laval; a Jesuit-trained general, Weygand; and another prominent [Ed.: Roman] Catholic, Marshal Petain... If active [Ed.: Roman] Catholic minorities contributed to the disintegration of European democracy, an active [Ed.: Roman] Catholic minority could do the same in the United States.”

Ed. comment to the preceding two definitions: The Jesuits – and other Roman Catholic orders – residing in any nation – represent a papal “fifth column” that will try to bring that nation down whenever the “Black Pope” (i.e., the Jesuit Superior General) – or the Jesuit-controlled “White Pope” – gives them the command to do so! These Roman Catholic “fifth columns” may take the form of Fascist or Communist organizations, secret societies, “liberation theology” movements (e.g., in LATIN AMERICA), etc. Roman Catholic “fifth columnists” and various Jesuit-controlled agents in 19th century America, e.g., the Knights of the Golden Circle and high-level Freemasons on both sides of the conflict, fomented the bloody American Civil War of 1861-65. Some of these American Roman Catholic “fifth columnists” (e.g., Jesuit priest B.F. Wiget, Roman Catholic priest Jacob A. Walter, Mary Surratt, and John Harrison Surratt) conspired to assassinate President Lincoln.

“Jesuit Order, The” (Per Darryl Eberhart, Editor of ETI & TTT): “The Jesuit Order was founded in 1534 by Ignatius of Loyola, and was officially approved as a religious order of the Roman Catholic Church by Pope Paul III in 1540. The primary goals of this order are (1) to roll back the Protestant Reformation and the freedoms that it brought to many of the inhabitants of this planet; (2) to enhance the power and prestige of the Papacy (and its ‘White Pope’); and (3) to rule despotically over the governments of the world through the Papacy. The head of the Jesuit Order is the Jesuit Superior General – the ‘Black Pope’ – the real power behind the Papal throne. The Jesuit Superior General is also the master of all these: his Jesuit Order, the Knights of Malta, the highest levels of the Knights of Columbus, the highest levels of Opus Dei, and the highest levels of Freemasonry – and of all the subgroups that he controls through these powerful and influential organizations. The Jesuit Order is infamous for fomenting revolutions and wars, assassinating heads of State (e.g., poisoning to death Mexican President Benito Pablo Juarez in 1872), and subverting nations. I believe that it is almost impossible to understand European history and Church history (of the past 4½+ centuries) without a good understanding of the Protestant Reformation and the Jesuit-led Counter-Reformation.”

Jesuits – and other Roman Catholic priests – have been prominent in Marxist ‘liberation theology’ movements in LATIN AMERICA!”

“Juarez, Benito Pablo” (Per Darryl Eberhart, Editor of ETI & TTT): “Benito Pablo Juarez was born in 1806, and was poisoned to death in 1872 by agents of the Jesuits. Juarez, a full-blooded Zapotec Indian, had studied for the Roman Catholic priesthood. He became the president and leader of the Republic of Mexico in 1857.

Seeing the immense power that the Roman Catholic Church wielded in Mexico, Mexican President Benito Pablo Juarez decided some ‘reforms’ were necessary to curtail the Roman Catholic Church’s control of Mexican society. (The Roman Catholic Church owned much of the best land in Mexico.) President Juarez exiled the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Mexico and five other Roman Catholic bishops, and he banished various Roman Catholic religious orders, such as the Jesuits. President Juarez enforced the Mexican Constitution of 1857, which granted to all Mexicans freedom of religion and conscience – and freedom of the press. (The Roman Catholic Church and the Jesuit Order absolutely hate freedom of religion!)

For these ‘heinous crimes’ against the hierarchy of the Mexican Roman Catholic Church and the Jesuit Order, courageous, reform-minded, and freedom-loving Mexican President Benito Pablo Juarez was assassinated (via the ‘poison cup’) in 1872 by agents of the Jesuit Order.”

III. SOME RELEVANT QUOTATIONS (listed alphabetically by author’s last name):

“Stunned by the staggering growth of evangelical sects in Brazil, leaders of the Roman Catholic Church have threatened to launch ‘holy war’ against Protestants unless they stop leading people from the [Ed.: Roman] Catholic fold. At the 31st National Conference of the [Ed.: Roman Catholic] Bishops of Brazil, [Ed.: Roman Catholic] Bishop Bohn called evangelicals a serious threat to the Vatican’s influence in his country. ‘We [Ed.: i.e., the Roman Catholic Church] will declare a holy war [Ed.: against the evangelicals in Brazil]; don’t doubt it. The [Ed.: Roman] Catholic Church has a ponderous structure, but when we move we will smash anyone beneath us’.” – Charisma (May 1994 issue)

“The present pope [Ed.: i.e., John Paul II – (this was written in 1985)] is a master politician, so he has spoken out against Marxism to retain the support of the United States in Poland. It is plainly a part of his overall strategy, a strategy which has always played both ends against the middle. The pope backs the Marxist-oriented liberation movements of Latin America to the hilt as long as they remain subservient to the overall goals of the [Ed.: Jesuit-controlled] Vatican. It was to reinforce this subservience that he [Ed.: i.e., Pope John Paul II] met with the Jesuits. [Ed.: The Jesuit Superior General (“Black Pope”) controls the “White Pope”.]

The Vatican realizes that it has lost out completely in most of Latin America if it does not back the Marxist revolutionaries, 99% of whom are Roman Catholics. [Ed.: Roman Catholic clergy, to include Jesuits, have been at the forefront of many of the Marxist movements in Latin America.] So when the pope visited the area, he alluded to the struggles for justice and human rights, which were going on in that part of the world. However, since the United States looks with concern on the Marxist revolutionaries, the pope has since shifted course again and pretended to reprimand the [Ed.: those Roman Catholic] clergy, who were, and are, involved [Ed.: in Marxist movements] in this region [Ed.: i.e., Latin America].” – Dr. Ronald Cooke (“The Vatican-Jesuit-Global Conspiracy”; 1985; Page vi.)

“The history of Latin America has fully demonstrated the accuracy of that appraisal [Ed.: of the Vatican’s support of oppressive regimes]. In [Ed.: Roman] Catholic countries [Ed.: in Latin America] the popes’ hatred of freedom and their partnership with oppressive regimes, which they often succeeded in manipulating to their own ends, is a matter of historical record. Whatever her [Ed.: i.e., the Roman Catholic Church’s] true motives, history bears full witness to the fact that whenever she has been able to do so, the Roman Catholic Church has suppressed and openly condemned such basic human rights as freedom of the press, speech, religion, and even conscience.” – Dave Hunt (“A Woman Rides the Beast”; Harvest House Publishers, Eugene, Oregon; 1994; Page 55)

“Prior to the revolution led by Benito [Ed.: Pablo] Juarez in 1861, Roman Catholicism had dominated the lives of the Mexican people, and [Ed.: had] controlled the government for 350 years. It was the state religion, and no other [Ed.: denomination or faith] was allowed.” – Dave Hunt (“A Woman Rides the Beast”; Harvest House Publishers, Eugene, Oregon; 1994; Page 56)

“The poverty and instability that has plagued Latin America resulted from the union between church [Ed.: i.e., the Roman Catholic Church] and state and the power over government which [Ed.: Papal] Rome, having enjoyed in Europe for centuries, brought to the new world in the name of Christ. The Roman [Ed.: Catholic] clergy were like little gods lording it over the natives, who became their servants [Ed.: and, in some cases, their slaves]. The revolutions in Latin American countries have been in large measure created by the contrast between the poverty of the people and the wealth of the Roman Catholic Church and the evil dictatorships it supported. ‘Liberation Theology’ was spawned in Latin America by radical [Ed.: Roman] Catholic priests and nuns whose aroused consciences could no longer justify the oppression of the masses by both Church [Ed.: i.e., the Roman Catholic Church] and state.” – Dave Hunt (“A Woman Rides the Beast”; Harvest House Publishers, Eugene, Oregon; 1994; Pages 56, 57)

“The oppression by [Ed.: predominantly Roman Catholic] Spain and the oppression by the Church of Rome [Ed.: in Mexico] were so intermeshed as to be indistinguishable by the people. The [Roman Catholic] hierarchy supported the Spanish regime and excommunicated, through its New World Inquisition, anyone resisting the power of the State... The government in turn enforced [Ed.: Roman Catholic] Church laws and, as the ‘secular arm’, functioned as disciplinarian, and even as executioner, for the [Ed.: Roman Catholic] Church.” – Emmett McLoughlin (“An Inquiry into the Assassination of Abraham Lincoln”; Page 70)

“The [Ed.: Roman Catholic] Spanish conquerors, headed by [Ed.: Francisco] Pizarro [Ed.: i.e., the Spanish conqueror of Peru who died in 1541] and...[Ed.: by Roman Catholic Dominican priest Vicente] Valverde, one representing Spain [Ed.: i.e., the State], the other the Vatican [Ed.: i.e., the Church], conquered the land [Ed.: of the Incas] and killed [Ed.: many of] the Incas, took all their gold and enslaved their people, destroyed their civilization and supplanted their religion, and as if all of that was not enough, they corrupted the morals, and left only their stigma.” – Dr. Walter M. Montano (Former Roman Catholic Dominican monk; “Behind the Purple Curtain”; Cowman Publications, Inc., Los Angeles, CA; 1950; Page 15)

“The vast accumulation of gold that the [Ed.: Roman Catholic] Spaniards found in the possession of the Incas was the least part of the wealth they derived from Peru. After the discovery of the rich silver mines of Potosi (now Bolivia’s exhausted mines), in 1546, that metal was the chief product of the country and supplied most of the great revenues of the [Ed.: Roman Catholic] sovereigns of Spain. For the working of the mines, and for all other labors required by the [Ed.: Roman Catholic] conquerors, the natives were enslaved, and destroyed rapidly by the unmerciful hardness of their toil. The Spanish enslavement of the American native [Ed.: with the full blessing of Papal Rome] was begun first by a tribute levied on them; then labor was exacted to work out the tribute; then the laborers were apportioned out among the [Ed.: Roman Catholic] colonists and adventurers to render the services required... It gave way quickly to the final system of ‘encomiendas’, which was slavery complete. ...They [Ed.: the native Indians] were tasked and treated with a deadly cruelty.

Why had [Ed.: Spanish conquistador Francisco] Pizarro and [Ed.: Roman Catholic Dominican priest Vicente] Valverde inflicted the most ignominious slavery upon these Indians? Why? ...All the other [Ed.: Roman Catholic] priests and conquerors thought that the Indians were only brutes.

...The [Ed.: Roman Catholic] Church came to the conclusion that these Indians [Ed.: that the Spanish conquistadors and Roman Catholic priests had enslaved] did not have a soul; that they were only higher animals...” – Dr. Walter M. Montano (Former Roman Catholic Dominican monk; “Behind the Purple Curtain”; Cowman Publications, Inc., Los Angeles, CA; 1950; Pages 20, 21)

*“These [Ed.: Paraguayan] Reductions [Ed.: i.e., communes]...produced untold wealth for the [Ed.: Roman Catholic Jesuit] Order using hundreds of thousands of [Ed.: Guarani Indian] slaves... The [Ed.: Jesuit] Order’s utopian Reductions, upon which socialism-communism was perfected, included central banks called ‘storehouses’, universal equality, and universal male and female labor. The goods produced by this slave labor were put into international trade with the [Ed.: Jesuit] Order’s huge fleet of ‘Black ships’.” – Eric Jon Phelps (“Vatican Assassins”; 1st edition, Halycon Unified Services; 2001; Pages 176, 177)*

*“[Ed.: Mexican President Benito Pablo Juarez] was the most dreaded enemy of the Society of Jesus [Ed.: i.e., the Jesuit Order] while hating the Temporal Power of the Papal Caesar in Rome. He...expelled 200 Jesuit priests [Ed.: from Mexico]. ...In 1872 he died at his desk, a victim of ‘the poison cup’.” – Eric Jon Phelps (“Vatican Assassins”; Halycon Unified Services; 1st Edition, 2001; Page 319)*

*“Jesuits have played leading roles in Nicaragua’s Sandinista revolution. Some Jesuits have joined Communist parties. One priest in El Salvador has claimed that his order is working for the advancement of Marxism and revolution, not for God...Jesuits have joined leftwing rebel movements in Central America and the Philippines, and have advocated a melding of Marxism and Roman Catholicism in what is called ‘liberation theology’.” – U.S. News & World Report (as quoted by Milton William Cooper on page 92 of his book, “Behold a Pale Horse”)*

IV. TO LEARN MORE ABOUT THE [ROMAN] CATHOLIC CONNECTION TO LATIN AMERICA:

1. Read the 327-page hardback book, “Behind the Purple Curtain” (Cowman Publications, Inc., Los Angeles, CA; 1950) by Dr. Walter M. Montano (a former Roman Catholic Dominican monk). To obtain a copy of this book, please check your local bookstore or local library, or do an Internet search for it.

2. Read the 1836-page “electronic book” (CD-ROM in PDF format), “Vatican Assassins” (Third Edition, 2007), by Eric Jon Phelps. (This electronic book has some interesting information concerning the Jesuits’ enslavement of the Guarani Indians in Paraguay.) To order this “electronic book” via credit card, please call LOWVEHM, Inc. at 1-610-589-5300. Their Internet website is www.vaticanassassins.org.

3. Read the 544-page paperback book, “A Woman Rides the Beast” (1994), by Dave Hunt. (This book exposes Roman Catholic oppression of peoples in many parts of the world.) To order this book via credit card, please call The Berean Call at 1-800-937-6638 (orders only; 8 A.M. – 5 P.M. Pacific time).

PERMISSION IS GIVEN TO COPY**