QUESTION: Who was Benito Pablo Juarez?

ANSWER: Benito Pablo Juarez was born in 1806, and he was poisoned to death in 1872 by agents of the Jesuits. Juarez, a full-blooded Zapotec Indian, had studied for the Roman Catholic priesthood. He became president and leader of the Republic of Mexico in 1857.

Eric Jon Phelps, on page 599 of his book, “Vatican Assassins” (Third Edition, 2007), describes Benito Pablo Juarez as “Mexico’s greatest patriot, Civil War commander and finest statesman of integrity, ability and undying determination in his quest to make his beloved country a nation among nations.”

Seeing the immense power that the Roman Catholic Church wielded in Mexico, President Benito Pablo Juarez decided some “reforms” were necessary to curtail the Roman Catholic Church’s control of Mexican society. He exiled the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Mexico and five other Roman Catholic bishops, and he banished from Mexico various Roman Catholic religious orders, such as the Jesuits. President Juarez enforced the Mexican Constitution of 1857, which granted all Mexicans freedom of religion and conscience – and freedom of the press. (The Roman Catholic Church and the Jesuit Order absolutely hate the freedoms of religion, conscience, and press – and thus they hated Mexican President Juarez!)

For these “heinous crimes” against the hierarchy of the Mexican Roman Catholic Church and the Jesuit Order, courageous, reform-minded, and freedom-loving Mexican President Benito Pablo Juarez was assassinated (via the “poison cup”) in 1872 by agents of the Jesuit Order.

Abbé M. De La Roche Arnauld (a former Jesuit) stated: “Do you wish to excite troubles, to provoke revolution, to produce the total ruin of your country? Call in the Jesuits; raise up again the monks; open academies, and build magnificent colleges for these hotheaded religionists; suffer [Ed.: i.e., allow] those audacious priests, in their dictatorial and dogmatic tone, to decide on affairs of State.”

The Marquis de LaFayette, French general and statesman, stated: “It is my opinion that if the liberties of this country – the United States of America – are destroyed, it will be by the subtlety of the Roman Catholic Jesuit priests, for they are the most crafty, dangerous enemies to civil and religious liberty. They have instigated most of the wars of Europe.”

O monstrous Jesuit Order, guilty of the assassination of so many heads of State, such as Mexican President Benito Pablo Juarez in 1872, French King Henry IV in 1610, Russian Czar Alexander I in 1825, Russian Czar Alexander II in 1881, U.S. President Abraham Lincoln in 1865, etc. – may many individuals continue to expose your numerous wicked deeds and crimes!
